

Economic Loss Calculation

The LaPorte Litigation and Forensic Accounting Services Group has decades of experience calculating economic losses involving individuals:

- Person injury
- Wrongful death
- Employment discrimination

LaPorte's professionals in the Litigation and Forensic Accounting Services Group are all certified public accountants with master's degrees. Other credentials of members in the group include:

- Certified fraud examiner
- Accredited in business valuation
- Certified in financial forensics
- Certified valuation analyst
- Master analyst of financial forensics

Members of the Litigation and Forensic Accounting Services Group are frequent speakers on economic loss calculation at national and regional conferences.

Many have qualified as economic loss experts in federal, bankruptcy, and state courts, providing testimony involving:

- Lost income: lost wages, lost self-employment income, lost investment income
- Lost fringe benefits: health insurance, retirement contributions
- Lost services: household
- Past and future medical costs

LaPorte's Litigation and Forensic Accounting Services Group can assist you with:

- Economic loss reports
- Reports on the present value of future medical costs
- Demonstrative exhibits
- Deposition and trial questions
- Rebuttal reports